His Holiness Sri Satguru Jagjit Singh Ji, being a topmost artist in the field of Classical Music Himself, has made such arrangements that the young generation of Namdharis should also be topper in their respective fields of Classical Music. The services of highly qualified ustads (professional teachers) have been acquired for this purpose. His Holiness Himself takes interest in training the children. Sri Satguru Partap Singh Ji had started a Sangeet Vidyala (Classical Music School) in 1928 A.D. at Sri Bhaini Sahib for the same purpose. Now, many Namdhari boys and girls are capable of playing Sitar, Tabla, Sarod, Sarangi, Dilruba, Taar-Shehnai, Santoor and Flute etc.

Progress in the field of Publications

The weekly 'Satjug' is being published since 1920 A.D., but its present shape and style is praise-worthy. The weekly at present, is being published from Delhi. Its annual editions are rich in literary matter. Every year, a couple of new books are being published by Namdhari Darbar which presents new authors and different reading material before the Sangat.

Several daily as well as weekly newspapers and magazines are also receiving liberal financial help from Sri Satguru Ji.

Monthly 'Waryam'

Monthly "Waryam" is a leading monthly Punjabi magazine in India. It is always in the fore-front in propagating ideals of Namdhari Sect as well as touching general social, political, religious and other fields. Its Editor Sri Jagdish Singh Namdhari, is also the General Secretary of Namdhari Darbar. He has also been at the helm of affairs of the Namdhari Vidyak Jatha.

Memorials build in memory of Shaheed Singhs (Kuka Martyrs)

With the graceful blessings of Sri Satguru Jagjit Singh Ji, S. Beant Singh Chief Minister, Punjab initiated steps for making the memorials for Kuka Martyrs at Amritsar, Ludhiana, Raikot and Maler Kotla. The Kuka Memorial trust was constituted for this purpose whose chairman is the Chief Minister of Punjab. Its trustees include many Namdharis, prominent and most active among them being Sant Surinder Singh Namdhari who has been tirelessly making efforts for the early completion of these memorials. First of all, the memorial at Malerkotla has been completed where half a million pound sterling have been spent on landscaping and buildings.

Here, a three-dimensional sixty-six feet high Khanda (double edged swords) has been constructed in such a design that it looks like a double edged swords from all the angles alike. Here a museum and a Library Hall have been built along with a hall for holding small functions. The whole area has been beautifully landscaped which rivals some of the famous parks in India. The land for other memorials has also been acquired at Ludhiana, Raikot and Amritsar and taken under the control of Kuka Martyr Memorials Trust.

Namdhari Seeds

Under the divine guidance of Sri Satguru Jagjit Singh Ji, Thakur Udai Singh Ji - a sincere and hard-working person, has worked very hard to set up and promote a private company called Namdhari Seeds which is located at about 35 Kilometers from Bangalore City in Southern India. Starting from a 186 Acre farm in Bidadi, Bangalore it has grown into a multi-national company with multi-million dollar turnover with branches spread in major cities around the world. It has recently acquired 1500 Acres of land near Bangalore also. It has also setup an ultra modern facility to process seeds as well as a packing facility for exporting fresh organic vegetables to U.K. and other European Countries. It is the number one seeds company in India in terms of turnover as well as quality.
